

Today, Congressman Mike Quigley (IL-05) issued the following statement in honor of Pulaski Day in Chicago:

Today we celebrate the life of General Casimir Pulaski, who was instrumental in America's fight for independence. He gave his life for our fledging nation and will always be remembered by both Americans and Poles for his dedication to liberty and justice for all. My recent trip to Poland reminded me how important it is for the United States and Poland to continue nurturing and celebrating our long-standing relationship. To this end, I will continue pushing for Poland's inclusion in the Visa Waiver Program. I hope that by making it easier for Polish citizens to visit their loved ones here in America, even more Polish families in my district will be able to celebrate next year's Casimir Pulaski Day together.
